Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Identitag Ltd is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all aspects of our business and supply chain. We believe that everyone has the right to work in a safe and fair environment, free from exploitation.

We conduct our operations with the highest standards of integrity, and we expect the same from our suppliers and partners. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and human trafficking, and we expect all our suppliers and partners to share this commitment.

Identitag Ltd has implemented policies and procedures to identify and assess the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our operations and supply chain. We conduct due diligence on our suppliers and partners to ensure that they meet our expectations and comply with applicable laws and regulations. We also provide training to our employees on how to identify and prevent modern slavery and human trafficking.

Identitag Ltd recognizes that our operations and supply chain are global, and that the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking can vary depending on the region and industry. We work with our suppliers and partners to identify and address these risks, and we regularly review and update our policies and procedures to ensure their effectiveness.

We are committed to ensuring that our suppliers and partners share our values and commitment to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking. We reserve the right to terminate relationships with suppliers and partners who do not meet our expectations, and we encourage our employees, suppliers, and partners to report any concerns related to modern slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and has been approved by the Directors of Identitag Ltd.
